

附件二

國外大專院校問卷之信函

CHUNG YUAN CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF DESIGN
CHUNG-LI, TAIWAN, 32023
REPUBLIC OF CHINA

December 15, 1994

Dear Chairperson:

The purpose of this letter is to request your professional assistance. The College of Design at Chung Yuan Christian University has been awarded a grant by the Ministry of Education, Taiwan, Republic of China, to conduct a study on the latest curriculum development in the areas of computer graphics and computer aided visual communications, and to collect information about computer application courses offered in design related disciplines.

It is our understanding that your program has actively engaged in the curriculum development in computer arts, and computer graphics. We would appreciate your help to send us any available information, such as:

1. Course titles and descriptions as well as topical outlines,
2. Copies of Instructional materials used in your classes, and
3. Comments about your current offerings and anticipated changes, if any.

Chung Yuan Christian University is a private University located about 25 miles south of Taipei City. The College of Design is the first and still the only design college in Taiwan, R.O.C. We are pleased to take upon this research and development project. Your help will certainly be credited and appreciated. Thank you in advance.

Sincerely,

Wan-Lee Cheng (Ph.D.)
Professor
Project Director

Diing-Wuu Wu (MFA)
Instructor
Associate Director